

Basic Cake Baking & Decorating

Beginners

This course is for those who love to bake but do not have the basic skills and knowledge to indulge in this field. This preparatory course is a hands-on workshop where you will learn two basic recipes for wedding/birthday cakes and one chocolate recipe. Also, you will learn basic icing covertures: basic fondant, meringue using a spatula, and vanilla/chocolate buttercream. You will practice how to properly decorate using decorating bags and tips as well as, how to add color to icing and maintain its freshness. As part of the workshop, you will practice, practice and practice how to decorate the cake in class. This course will clarify any doubts you may have on proper oven use, mold capacities and other baking topics. Included are an instruction manual and a certificate of participation. At the end of this course, you will be able to make delicious and unique cakes using your own creativity.
